

KVM Remote Console Kit

KVM-9009

H/W Version: 2

LevelOne's KVM-9009 is a KVM Remote Console Kit , that enables user to access the server farm and PCs connected to KVM-0831/KVM-1631 up to 300 meters away. This additional remote console provides system administrators with a higher flexibility.

It offers hot-key or push buttons for switching quickly between the computers. No software is required and plug and play installation means you're remote management solution will be ready in just minutes.

Compatible with KVM-0831/1631 KVM Switches w/ Expansion

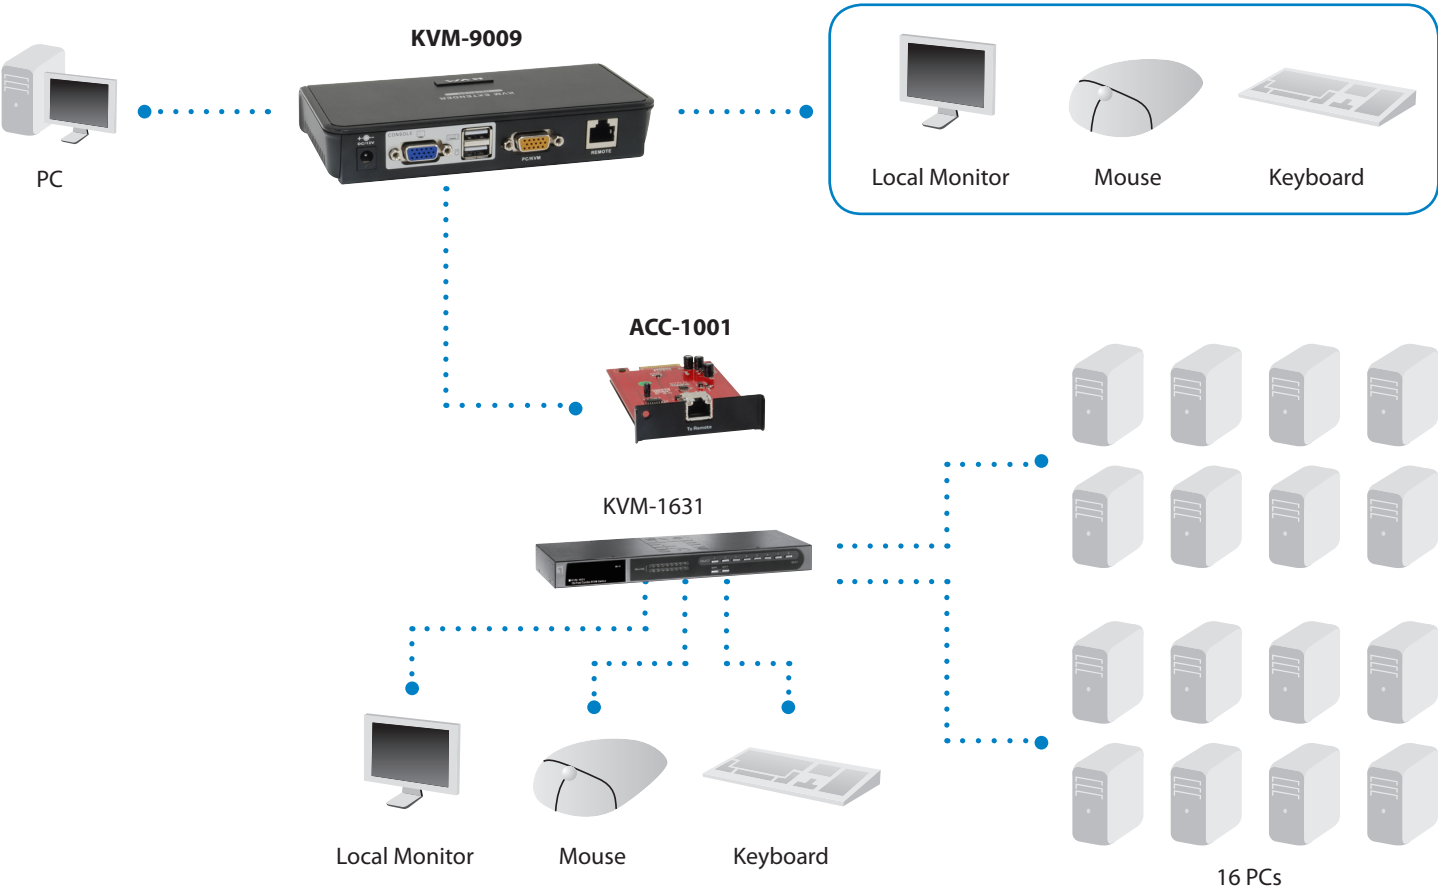

KVM-9009 is a great accessory to be used with KVM-0831/KVM-1631 thanks to the optional expansion slot.

KVM-9009 KVM Remote Console Receiver sits at the remote console and offers users easy and convenient management of the connected PCs in the server room, up to 300 meters away.

Key Features

- KVM Cat.5/5e/6 signal receiver for the KVM-0831/1631 KVM switches.
- Extends, transmits and receivers KVM Cat.5 signals from up to 300 meters (1000 feet) away.
- Designed for application with LevelOne KVM expansion switches with optional ACC-1001 KVM Remote Console Transmitter Module.
- Switching computers by push button or Hot key
- LED indicators for computer status or data transmission
- Easy installation with no additional software requirement

Product Diagram

Order Information

KVM-9009: KVM Remote Console kit