

Philips
Analogue baby monitor

SCD469/05

Automatically rings your phone

Functions as a normal baby monitor. However, there are occasions when you need that extra freedom a normal monitor is unable to provide; for example, when you are gardening. With the Dial-Up monitor you can easily switch to the dial-up mode

Complete peace of mind

- Pick up the phone and listen to your child
- Extend the reception range for virtually unlimited distance
- Indicates a continuous connection between the two units
- For total flexibility
- For reduced interference

Ultimate mobility in and around the house

- When used as a normal baby monitor, in open air
- Rechargeable parent unit for minimum 24 hours of monitoring

Convenience for you and your child

- See baby's sounds even with the volume off
- Allows you to talk to the baby
